NUMB. 3288

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1744.

Leghorn, November 7.

WE are yet somewhat at a Loss as to the Person who was lately taken up at the Instance of the State of Genoa. We still believe, that it is the Count de Beaujeu; but this is certain, that he is a Frenchman, and that he is very closely confin'd, and not suffer'd to speak, or write, to any Body. Accord- to all our Advices from Corsica, the People are as y and mutinous there, as ever; so that, probably, l not be long before they find a Way to renew their gues in Barbary; which, some time or other, may ill Consequence, not only to the Affairs of Italy, o those of all Europe. The English Agent here g given Orders for procuring great Quantities of ions, we fancy that Admiral Rowley, with the under his Command, will soon return hither, in to pass the Winter.

ia, November 7. They write from our Camp at la, of the 3d, that a grand Council was held there Presence of the King and Prince Royal; in which resolv'd, that the Three Brigades that still re- d in the Camp, should march into the Valley of in order to assist in the Design that has been of cutting off the Communication of the French s that are left at Demont, with that Kingdom. Reason that we have not destroy'd so many of the y's Troops in their Retreat, as might be expected, ng to the prodigious Desertion that reigns among insomuch, that within the last Week, no less oo French Men arrived in our Camp, and offer'd r into our Service. Throughout the whole Re- as often as our Forces came up with the Rear- of the Enemy, the best Part of them were sure rt, in order to get a Meal's Meat; for they were Want, and so fatigued, that Fighting was quite their Heads. In forcing some of the Passages, r, there have been a good many kill'd and wound- rticularly in forcing the Pass of Mulet, within ew Days, wherein 80 Miquelets were cut to and 30 made Prisoners.

h, November 15. The French Troops that were e in the Siege of Fribourg, are defiling as fast ible, in order to go into Winter Quarters; but owever, will be taken, to leave a sufficient Num- form the Siege of the Castles, in case the Queen gary should not approve of the Capitulation; is, however, a Thing scarce doubted; since, if she r, a Body of 6000 good Troops will be infallibly risoners of War, that may otherwise be saved; at ne time, their exposing them in these Fortresses no Service, their Magazines being almost empty.

, November 21. His Majesty set out for Versailles 17th; and the Road was all the Way lin'd with abitants of this City, who express'd, by continual ations, their Joy, at beholding the King again in ealth. When his Majesty came near Versailles, met by the Duke of Noailles, at the Head of a umber of Persons of Distinction, and passed thro' hal Arch, so well contrived, and so finely deco- hat it is to remain, in order to serve for the Re- that are to be made for the Dauphin's Marriage. Speeches that have been made to the King, since urn, are innumerable, and incomparable; but ngue of M. Vanhoey, on the 14th, is the most mary of all; it absolutely surpasses our Eloquence own Style, and is infinitely fuller of submissive than those made by the Mayors of the Country thro' which his Majesty passed in his Journey. conceived in the following Terms.

r, Their High Mightinesses, the States General United Provinces, have honoured me with their to testify to your Majesty, their Joy on your return, in good Health, to the Capital of your om.

ow, Sire, by myself, how great a Share their High nesses took in the Sorrow of France during me of Terror, of Sighs, of Vows, and of Tears, very one call'd you Father, and every one wish'd ong the Date of your Majesty's Life, at the Ex- of his own.

ve alike Sense of the Quickness of that Joy succeeded those mortal Alarms. I felt in my reast, all the Force of these different Emotions Soul; but how shall I describe to your Majesty, nner in which I felt them! We are but mode- ffected, when Words can express how high our ons rise.

'May your Majesty, thro' a long Series of Years, reap 'the Fruit and the Recompence of your Royal Virtues, 'from the Testimonies the most distinguish'd, and the 'most sincere, of the Love of your People!

'And may it be my Lot, Sire, and may my Abilities 'be equal to the Task, to express, without ceasing, those 'Sentiments of Admiration, of Respect, and of Vene- 'ration, that the Republick always preserves, and will 'always preserve, for the Person of your most Sacred 'Majesty.'

His Excellency not being able to find any finer Sett of Words for the Compliment he was to make her Majesty on the same Occasion, was modestly pleas'd to repeat them, with the Addition, of attributing the King's Recovery to the Force of her Prayers.

LONDON.

According to some private Letters from Paris, the Duke de Chatillon's Disgrace arose from the Speech he made to the Dauphin, on the King's demanding Pardon for the Scandal he had given by his Conversation with certain Ladies. 'You see, Sir, said he to that young 'Prince, that, in certain Circumstances, Kings are as 'much accountable for their Faults as private Men; let 'your Father's Example be a Warning; copy his Vir- 'tues, that have made him the Darling of his People, 'and shun those Weaknesses, that make him the Object 'of Pity.'

The late Cardinal de Gesvres left behind him 8 000,000 of Livres in ready Money, which he bequeath'd to charitable Uses; his Library he gave to the Benedictines; his Furniture to his Nephew the Duke de Gesvres, Governor of Paris; his Silver Plate to the Count de Tresmes; and all his gilt Plate to Madame de Bethune, his Niece.

There are some private Letters from the Hague, which say, that the Duke de Saxe Weissenfels, with the Saxon Army, had, by a forc'd March, cut off the King of Prussia's Retreat, while Prince Charles, and his Forces, were between him and Prague; so that he is under the absolute Necessity of fighting before he leaves Bohemia.

Yesterday a Dispensation pass'd the Great Seal, to enable the Revered John Rolleston, M.A. Chaplain to the Right Hon. Francis, Lord Middleton, to hold the Rectory of Stanton by the Bridge, in the County of Derby; together with the Rectory of Aston upon Trent, in the same County.

The Trial of Dogan the Irish Priest, which was to have come on To-morrow in the Court of King's Bench at Westminster, for enlisting Men into the Service of the King of Spain, was Yesterday put off to the 29th of January next.

The Launceston Man of War is order'd Home from New England; and to take under Convoy, from thence, the Ships laden with Masts for the Service of his Majesty's Navy.

An EPISTLE to CURIO.

Neque tam ulciscendi causa dixi, quam utes in præsens [illegible] leratòr cives timore ab impugnanda patria detinerem [illegible] posterum, documentum fiatuerem, nequis talem audaciam vellet imitari. TULL.

Printed for R. Dodsley, in Pall-Mall; and Sold by [illegible] Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster Row.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Purgation or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Infatuation is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do as once at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and intirely destroy it, and Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Diseases.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whereby exceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters or other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and effectually prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Blood pleasantly Lightsom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve us well as to restore sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of Honour for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, and under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the right, which the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and terrible Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and even the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely extirpated by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Infection on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness ensuing on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Pox attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Scabs, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, is overcome by it, and effectually and much more surer than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Nausea, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and a Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Infection by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly free from Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to remain in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it secure themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it leaves no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and cutaneous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Obstructions and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SIPHYLICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. [illegible]'s Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. [illegible] Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with Directions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons may perfectly understand their own Condition, and know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Sc[illegible]
